

Saint-Laz
2010 Arts

Free entertainment for the whole family

Weather permitting, there will be performances on Chemin Sainte-Angélique (in the empty lot facing Montée Saint-Lazare) every Thursday from July 8 to August 19. Remember to bring a chair, a cushion or a blanket. In case of rain, the events will take place at the Saint-Lazare Community Centre at 1301 Rue du Bois.

July 8, 7 p.m. Slim Wood Blues Band

Blues singer and piano player Slim Wood makes the Mississippi's Juke Joints come alive again. Drawing its inspiration from the hot rhythms and the wild boogie-woogies once heard from Chicago to New Orleans, this band will lead you on a musical journey back in time.

July 15, 7 p.m. Lachine Concert Band

Founded in 1916, the Lachine Concert Band is made up of some thirty musicians and focuses mostly on woodwinds. Directed by Ted West, the orchestra will play a variety of musical styles, from classical, Spanish and Jazz/Blues to big band and Dixieland tunes as well as music from Broadway and the movies. A repertoire everyone will enjoy!

July 22, 7 p.m. Jim Zeller

A regular at the International Jazz Festival for over 15 years, Quebec's harmonica sensation is well known for his electrifying performance on stage. Jim Zeller has created a new style called the psychobilly, a mix of rock & roll, punk and blues with some rap thrown in. He is very much in demand and has worked with legends such as B.B. King, Bob Dylan, Michel Pagliaro and Léo Ferré! This is your chance to hear and see The Tornado!

July 29, 7 p.m. Angélique Desjardins

Angélique and her brass-and-percussion band give a fiery, Latin-influenced, performance. Their music is truly a cultural adventure. They will play current hits as well as salsa and merengue rhythms that will make you want to dance and party under the stars.

According to singer/actor Gildor Roy : «Angélique is the most Latin of all New Brunswick women!»

August 5, 7 p.m. Léo le petit pirate

(children's theatre in French only)

Léo is a young pirate who lives on an island with his dog Balthazar. The pair builds a raft and leaves for a trip around the world, taking along a multicoloured parrot and a host of amusing characters. Their adventure will lead our two friends to the four corners of the Earth, from the Arctic to Africa.

August 12, 7 p.m. Country music with JC Harrisson

You like American country music? Then you are sure to love JC Harrisson's emotion-filled songs. He was named Quebec's best country singer in 2002 and is famous for his sensational imitation of legendary Hank Williams. This cowboy will perform his own compositions as well as hits by Garth Brooks, Georges Strait and Alan Jackson. A show you do not want to miss!

August 19, at dusk Outdoor movie «DRAGON» (French version)

– around 8:30 p.m.

Movies will be shown on a giant screen for a new cinematic experience you will want to share with the whole family. Do not forget to bring a chair, a blanket and... tons of popcorn!
